PLEASANTON MAN ARRESTED AFTER KILLING MOTHER

Yesterday, around 4:45 p.m., Malcolm Tilley, a 31-year-old Pleasanton resident, walked into the lobby of the Pleasanton Police Department and stated that he killed his 71-year-old mother following a dispute. Officers immediately went to the man's residence at the 4000 block of Alvarado Street, where they discovered a deceased individual at the scene with multiple knife wounds. Evidence found at the home included several kitchen knives, which were located near the victim.

The suspect is currently being held at Santa Rita Jail for homicide. There is no threat to the community at this time. According to department records, there are no prior incidents at the residence.

This is an active investigation, and our detectives are working to gather additional details. If you or anyone you know has information about this case, please call (925) 931-5100.
